

DiSCussion: Meetings by Style

Know your colleagues! With DiSC® styles in mind, meetings can be planned and executed in thoughtful ways that leave everyone in the room feeling productive and positive. Share your DiSC style below!

D-styles

- prefer meetings with minimal small talk or side chatter
- appreciate an agenda that everyone sticks to

i-styles

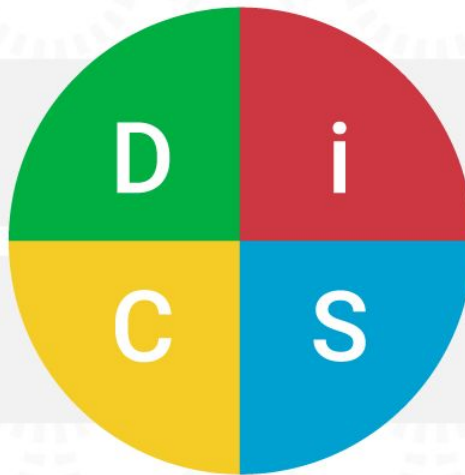

- flourish when given the opportunity to express personal opinions
- like to have open discussions with others

C-styles

- don't respond well to making big decisions that feel rushed or pressured
- often need all the details before forming a stance or opinion

S-styles

- feel comfortable when provided with an outline in advance
- prefer meetings where everyone has a chance to be heard
